Conference

We are having bi-weekly meetings about the conference. We are starting to get people registering at the hotel.

If you have vendor or sponsor information, please send it to Michelle Cox.

Instructors are starting to call offering their services.

One of the SO polygraphers stated she would come and teach a class at the conference on the importance of polygraphs during the background process.

Jeff McGowan stated her polygraph chair was broken by an individual and asked all to consider paying for a new portable polygraph chair which would cost $550-$600.

This motion was made by Rene Dennis to pay $550-$600 for a new portable polygraph chair. The motion was seconded by Belinda Rickman. The motion was carried by all in attendance with no objections.

All of Pasadena PD's Crime Prevention Officers are going to the conference.

If you are a member, register now.

There are a total of 8 scholarships. The last day to register for the scholarship is April 15. You must be a member and must have attended at least 6 meetings to qualify for the scholarship but if we have less than 8 applications that qualify, we will accept new members.
