New Business

Greg Schoener has proposed three by-law changes. These changes will be voted on at the December meeting according to our by-laws:

1. Article V Section I
   Add to the end of the paragraph:
   The office of presidential candidate must have been a paid member for (2) consecutive years immediately prior to the election. Must be a TCPA Certified Crime Prevention Specialist (CCPS) prior to being elected to office.
2. Article V (New Section IX)
   Duties of the Immediate Past President
   1) Assist the president with all background and information regarding their administration that will affect the operation of TGCCPA
   2) Serve on the TGCCPA Board of Directors in an advisory, non-voting position
   3) Convey information on projects and/or tasks that were not completed under their administration
   4) Convey lists of committees including chairpersons and their status. Provide any other assistance and complete other duties that may be required by the president for the operation of TGCCPA
   5) Upon relinquishing the position, immediately convey all property and outlines of current business affairs to the incoming successor along with assistance and cooperation as necessary
3. Article IV Section III Election of Officers
   Add sentence at the end of the paragraph:

All candidates running for an office must make their intentions known by the end of the October meeting.

Jeffery McGowen donated $895 to purchase a mascot suit, “Buddy” for Aldine ISD PD. He did this in the name of TGCCPA.

Jeffery McGowen made a motion to donate $500 to Aldine ISD PD to aid in the purchase of candy for the “Trunk or Treat” event held every year. The motion was seconded by Brandon Bloodworth and approved by all in attendance.
